Seventh Judicial Circuit Recognizes Juror Appreciation Week

In honor of Juror Appreciation Week, the Seventh Judicial Circuit Court extends its sincere thanks to all citizens who fulfill this vital civic responsibility.

"Jury service is one of the most direct and important ways citizens participate in their government," said Chief Judge Leah Case. "We are grateful to every individual who answers the call to serve. Their time, dedication, and thoughtful participation strengthen the judicial process."

Juror Appreciation Week provides an opportunity to acknowledge and celebrate the commitment jurors demonstrate in supporting the rule of law and upholding the rights guaranteed by the Constitution.

Thank you to everyone who has taken a seat in the jury box.
